

Please leave the Wisconsin No-Call List in place. This has been a blessing to consumers in the state of Wisconsin, especially to the elderly residents. So many elderly residents in our state are preyed upon by crooked telemarketers. The Wisconsin No-Call List has been effective in combating unethical business behavior. If it's not broke, why change it?